Managing Assessment Practice

This program will give you the skills and confidence to manage your RTO's assessment practices. Assessment practices underpin the integrity of every Qualification and Statement of Attainment issued by a RTO, and the credibility of such certificates.

Managing the processes used to design, administer and validate assessments is a critical task to ensure quality and compliance of assessment practices. This learning program includes three webinars and will provide you with the skills, knowledge and tools to establish and to manage assessment practices across your RTO's operations.
